

A complete six-scene product demo

An edited 30-second example using the builder's scene-planning structure. Concept: demonstrate a ceramic mug.
Audience: makers preparing a first product video. This is a text plan, not finished footage or six generated images.

Scene 1 / 0-5s / Need

Visual: close-up of a blank video outline beside a ceramic mug.

Narration: "Have a product, but no plan for the video?"

On-screen text: Start with one clear idea.

Shot prompt: Overhead desk, ceramic mug, blank outline, soft daylight, steady camera.

Scene 2 / 5-10s / Reveal

Visual: screen recording of the storyboard tool; enter a mug demonstration concept.

Narration: "Start with a simple product demonstration."

On-screen text: Choose your concept.

Shot prompt: Record the real tool interface; show the concept field being filled.

Scene 3 / 10-15s / Feature

Visual: select Product demo, 30 seconds and six scenes; build the board.

Narration: "Choose a format, duration and scene count."

On-screen text: Product demo / 30 seconds / 6 scenes.

Shot prompt: Capture actual selections and the generated text board; do not fabricate controls.

Scene 4 / 15-20s / Use

Visual: close-up of the mug handle, glaze and size beside a hand.

Narration: "Show one useful detail in each shot."

On-screen text: One detail per shot.

Shot prompt: Same ceramic mug, soft daylight, smooth close detail, consistent colors.

Scene 5 / 20-25s / Review

Visual: revise one narration line and review the printable plan.

Narration: "Edit the plan to match what you can actually show."

On-screen text: Review. Adapt. Record.

Shot prompt: Record actual editing in your workflow; if the tool output is not directly editable, edit the exported text.

Scene 6 / 25-30s / Next step

Visual: finished six-scene plan beside the product.

Narration: "Try this free example, then explore the full builder."

On-screen text: See the free storyboard example.

Shot prompt: Clear end card with the product URL and an honest invitation; no results or sales guarantees.
